ENTRY

_____

On October 12, 2009, this Court entered an order requiring Reynolds to place SIS's VOC entries back into the appropriate VOC file not later than 48 hours after entry of the Order and requiring Reynolds to further refrain from removing any SIS code from dealers' systems without dealer approval. (Doc. #37.) On October 13, 2009, Reynolds notified the Court that it had complied with the Order. (Doc. #38.)

On October 15, 2009, SIS requested a clarification of the Order and another telephone conference. (Doc. #40.) In essence, SIS would like to have more relief than was granted by the Order. However, the Order is perfectly clear: Reynolds was required to place SIS's VOC entries back into the appropriate VOC file not later than 48 hours after entry of the Order and Reynolds was required to further refrain from removing any SIS code from dealers' systems without dealer approval, nothing more, nothing less.

DONE and ORDERED in Dayton, Ohio this Twentieth day of October, 2009.
